PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ NEW DELHI

Rely firm M3M India on Wednesday announced that it has acquired 350-acre land in Panipat, Haryana for ₹1,500 crore, and will invest another ₹1,200 crore to develop an integrated township. Gurgaon-based M3M India promoter Pankaj Bansal said the company will invest a total of ₹2,700 crore, including land and construction costs, to develop this township project and expects a sales revenue of ₹5,000 crore.

"We have already forayed into the Noida market last month and now we have bought 350-acre land in Panipat from Ambience Group. This is the first step towards becoming a pan-India player," Bansal said at a Press briefing. He said the company has entered into tripartite agreements with Ambience Group and Indiabulls Housing Finance. M3M Group is also developing Trump Tower in Gurgaon.

"We have taken over the loan of Indiabulls Group," Bansal said. The company plans to launch this township project in February of next year and expects to complete it in the next 18-24 months. In the township, M3M India will develop plots, villas, retail space, a hospital and school, among other infrastructure facilities.

New Delhi: Real estate developer M3M has acquired a 350-acre land parcel in Panipat, Haryana, from Indiabulls Housing Finance for ₹1,500 crore, according to Pankaj Bansal, M3M's director, marking one of the biggest land deals in the country in recent times. The land belonged to the Ambience Group but was held as collateral by Indiabulls Housing Finance, which had extended more than ₹2,500 crore in loan to the company. The housing finance company sold the land parcel to collect its loan money.

capital region (NCR), this is its second acquisition outside Gurgaon. The company recently purchased a 13-acre plot in Noida for ₹927 crore in a government auction. It will be the company's first project in Noida.

It will develop around 3 million sq ft of space, of which 40% will be residential and the rest commercial. The project will cost ₹2,400 crore in total, including land and stamp duty.

"While we will continue to expand in Gurgaon. We see Noida as a big market. In addition to the current acquisition, we are in talks to close 2-3 acquisitions next year," Bansal said. "We have committed M3M recently acquired a 13-acre land parcel in Gurgaon's Sector 57, where it plans to build 800,000 sq ft of retail space with an investment of ₹500 crore. The plots measuring 1.5-acre and 5.5-acre are on the main road, and the company will develop high-streets as demand for open markets has increased after the Covid-19 pandemic. M3M India has delivered 3.9 million sq ft of retail space till date at Golf Course Road extension, making it the largest retail space developer in Gurgaon.

The company has delivered 41 projects in a decade. M3M is also planning to launch another 2 million sq ft
